PROTECTING THOSE WHO PROTECTS OUR OCEANS

INTERNATIONAL MOVEMENT THAT PROMOTES AWARENESS, TRANSPARENCY AND ACTION TO ENSURE FAIR SOCIAL PRACTICES AT THE SEA

We advocate for truly responsible fishing (social, environmental and economic) because only by protecting people and the ocean can we build a prosperous, fair and sustainable future.

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT HEARING

Advancing the social dimension of sustainable fisheries

Hosted by Carmen Crespo, Chair of the Committee on Fisheries (PECH) on 30 September, to present the responsible fishing standard being promoted by OPAGAC as a practical tool to help European retailers respond to the EU Forced Labour Regulation, which will apply from December 2027.

The hearing highlighted the need for credible, verifiable and enforceable mechanisms to ensure that seafood products placed on the European market are not linked to forced labour.

Advancing the social dimension of sustainable fisheries

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT HEARING

Professor Sallie Yea presented alarming data: after 15 years of research, she documented extreme conditions, injuries, deaths on board, and families who do not know the whereabouts of their loved ones. Furthermore, 94% of the fishers interviewed suffered from unpaid wages.

Former enslaved fisherman Fredi Seprizal recounted more than 16 months of exploitation on a Chinese-flagged vessel

Indonesian Migrant Workers Union (SBMI) warned of 988 registered cases in 2025 among migrant workers in the fishing sector related to forced labor, human trafficking, and unpaid wages.
